Taxes Hurt! Sign This

AN EDITORIAL

For many, many years, The Sun has been asking people to do something about the tax situation in Contra Costa County.

The situation has become so serious that it is imperative that each of us, who lives in Contra Costa County—who pays taxes in Contra Costa County—let our voices and our opinions be heard by those who can do something about it.

And there is something YOU can do about it.

YOU CAN TELL your elected officials—your board of supervisors—exactly how you feel about some of the measures which they have it in their power to decide.

We are unhappy about the tax situation. We have reason to believe, from the letters The Sun has received, and from conversation about the community, that other people are unhappy too.

What can we do about it?

There are four measures before the board of supervisors which can have a very direct bearing on your tax bill. They are:

1. Reorganization of the county's lower court system.

2. Additional personnel for the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Office.

3. Salaries and fringe benefits for county workers.

4. Keep the budget of the county's public works department at substantially the current level.

What can you do about your taxes? You can clip the petition below, sign it, and mail it to your board of supervisors, Martinez, Contra Costa County. Let them know exactly how you feel about the tax situation.

PETITION

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, do hereby petition you, our Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors, to take immediate action on the tax situation which is facing us.

We are residents of Contra Costa County, and we are seriously concerned with our rapidly increasing tax bills.

We feel that there are definite steps that you, as our elected representatives, can take to ease the burden which is being placed upon us.

Therefore, we ask you:

TO FOLLOW THE RECOMMENDATIONS of County Administrator J. P. McBrien regarding the reorganization of our lower court system.

McBrien has recommended that all our municipal courts and our judicial courts be merged into one county-wide district. He has pointed out that this will save us tremendous amounts of money annually, starting immediately, and finally amounting to $500,000 per year.

This recommendation has the support of State Superior Court Justices and appears to be entirely reasonable. There is some local opposition to the measure, and we realize that your board has delayed final decision on the matter to allow the Contra Costa Bar Association to present its recommendations.

We petition you to adopt this measure as a positive step in reducing our taxes by providing economy in an important branch of our government.

WE ASK YOU to withhold action on providing additional men for the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Office. The sheriff has asked you to provide funds for the hiring of 46 additional men.

However, the retiring grand jury has suggested that an outside, expert body should make a thorough study of the sheriff's office and the delegation of manpower, to determine exactly what the needs are.

We ask you to withhold action on this matter until such a study is made.

Previous grand juries have recommended that such a study be made, and The Sun has pointed this out in editorials for several years, but to date nothing has been done.

Until action is taken on this recommendation and the real need for additional manpower and its use is determined, we ask that the present budget be maintained.

There are many areas of our county which are considering annexation or incorporation, and which could considerably reduce the patrol load now placed on the sheriff's department.

IT IS ENTIRELY possible that a reduction in patrolmen could be accomplished in the future. Until the matter is thoroughly investigated, we urge that the sheriff's department budget be maintained at its present level.

WE URGE YOU TO hold the present line on county employee salaries and fringe benefits. We realize that adjustments must be made to correct inequities in salaries and position, but an overall increase in salaries and fringe benefits is not called for under the present drastic tax situation.

We realize that you are presently studying the salaries and that you have rejected an across-the-board increase, and we feel that this is good.

It is the only way in which our tax bills can be kept within reasonable limits. We would like to respectfully point out that county salaries and fringe benefits are already, in many cases, in excess of those to be found in similar positions in private industry.

We would also like to make these additional comments:

WE URGE YOU to heed the recommendation of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association to hold the line on the county's proposed road and bridge budget for 1961-62.

The County Public Works Department has asked for $2,720,000 above its current budget of $4,447,000. We feel that adding this amount to our current budget would be a severe and difficult strain on the taxpayer.

It is common knowledge that the county will probably, in the near future, seek a bond issue for future road and bridge construction, as it has in the past.

We ask you to keep the 1961-62 expenditures in line with the present budget and to put all other matters before the taxpayers in the form of a bond issue which they can decide at the polls.

We feel that if a definite program, outlining proposed projects and their cost, is put before the voters, then can they decide intelligently and democratically at the polls just what they need and can afford.

But to increase the budget of the public works department by this amount, which would be reflected directly on our tax bills, is asking too much.

We urge you to heed the recommendations of the taxpayers association on this matter.

FINALLY, WE MUST point out that it is imperative that the current budget be maintained, if it cannot be reduced. The increase in assessed valuation which is occurring steadily in the county will help you keep the tax rate at its present level, if, indeed, you cannot actually reduce it.

But the burden on the private taxpayer is becoming serious, and it is time that strong, definite action is taken.

That action is up to you.

We realize that you control only a part of our ultimate tax bill. We are aware that our other taxing districts—schools, sanitary district, flood control, fire, cemetery, mosquito abatement, water, flood control and others—are responsible for a large share of the taxes which we pay each year.

We hope that the message which we have given you will be heeded equally by the directors and trustees of these districts, because only, in this way, can we hope to arrive at any fiscal sanity in the coming year.

19-Cent Raise in School District Tax Rate Seen

The tax rate in the Orinda Union School District will go up approximately 19 cents above the current tax rate, according to the tentative budget adopted by trustees Monday night at Orinda School.

James Jentges, district assistant superintendent for business service, estimated that the 1961-62 tax rate will be $2.56 per $100 assessed valuation, 19 cents above the current $2.37 figure.

Jentges explained that because of an estimated 23 per cent in the increased valuation of the Orinda area due to the recent county reassessment, the tax rate will still be 18 cents below the original estimate.

For the first time in many years, Jentges said, more than half the district's revenue will come from local taxes.

The tax rate will be 19 cents below the $2.75 ceiling permitted by law.

Trustees Name Putnam & Weaver Insurance Agent

Putnam & Weaver of Oakland were awarded the insurance contracts for the Orinda Union School District by the district's board of trustees at a board meeting Monday night at Pine Grove School.

The action was taken in accordance with the recommendation of the insurance committee after weeks of study and discussion.

IN OTHER action the board rejected the alternate proposals for air-conditioning, but accepted the base bid of Kirkham, Chaon & Kirkham, $95,734 for the new administration building. The architects were directed to study the air-conditioning problem with consideration of individual room air-conditioning and to submit their proposals to the board.

The board approved the budget for the 1961-62 year at a final revised figure of $1,698,603 and established salary schedules for administrators and assistant superintendents.

The board appointed Don Mahler as director of research and pupil personnel services. Mahler has served the district for two years as guidance consultant prior to which he was a teacher. Reclassification of the Science and Foreign Language departments was approved. Mrs. Esther Johnston will be coordinator of foreign language and a coordinator of science will be appointed

NATHAN GRAY, retiring chairman, expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of the other board members and the school administrators during his term of office.

A reorganization meeting is scheduled for 7:30 a.m. July 1, when Mrs. Gretchen Howe will begin her term of office as a trustee of the Orinda board.

Stanford Grad Receives Army Lt. Commission

Allen H. Shapiro of Orinda received his commission as a second lieutenant in the United States Army Reserve at the recent graduation exercises at Stanford University.

He will report for active duty at Fort Benning, Georgia, in July.

Shapiro is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall A. Shapiro, 18 La Vuelta.

He majored in economics at Stanford.

CONGRATULATIONS, says Dr. Chilton Bush, left, retiring head of the Department of Communications and Journalism at Stanford University as he hands Sun Associate Editor Dick Osborn a plaque representing fourth place in the nation for General Excellence, an award given to The Sun by the National Editorial Association. The award was presented at a California Newspaper Publishers' Association Banquet at Stanford in lieu of the actual presentation in Salt Lake City last week.

Vacation, Not Baseball On Cookie's Mind Now

Last week Cookie Lavagetto became the second American League manager to be fired this season.

This week Cookie came home to Orinda for a few days of rest and a vacation at Lake Tahoe with his family.

Baseball will be forgotten for the present while he and his family make the most of this first summer vacation in many years.

Cookie said he wasn't surprised over the firing. After many years in the game he knew that the manager is the first to go when things aren't going right.

A month ago Cookie's job was most secure. His brand new Minnesota Twins were up near the top of the league and playing good ball.

Then, without warning, everything went wrong and the Twins couldn't win a game.

After an exciting finish last year with a host of strong men, long-ball hitters, many people in the twin cities of Minnesota were disappointed.

MOST disappointed, however, was Twin owner Clark Griffith.

The disappointment over his team's poor showing in its new home led to Cookie's dismissal.

Many observers close to the baseball scene believe it was the old Washington Senators that caused Cookie's downfall.

The Senators last year finished a strong fifth in the American League.

The only reason the Twins aren't in tenth place in the oversized American League is due to the complete ineptness of the new Los Angeles Angels.

TWO WEEKS before he was fired, Cookie was given a "vacation" by Twins' owner Calvin Griffith.

The vacation didn't help the Twins or Cookie Shortly after his return to the team he was relieved by coach Sam Mele.

As far as another job in baseball is concerned, Cookie is taking a wait and see attitude.

He has indicated that he would not be interested in major league coaching after being a manager for almost four years.

Acalanes Board Stands Firm; Construction Ok'd

By JEAN JERNIGAN

A call for bids to construct Rheem High School was issued Monday night by the Board of Trustees of the Acalanes Union High School District.

Construction of the new high school will proceed according to plan, although the board, in a two hour and 20 minute discussion listened to parents opposed to the building of the new school at this time.

However, reports from the parents group who termed construction on the new high school "premature" and statements from the Acalanes board, indicate that both groups reached an understanding and will work cooperatively for the good of the students involved and the school.

THE PARENTS' group who represented from 150 to 200 parents of the Glorietta School area, according to Mrs. R. R. Bowles, objected to the construction for several reasons.

Reasons voiced before the Orinda School Board last week, and the Acalanes board this week, primarily were those concerned with the academic opportunities students attending the new high school might have to forfeit.

Also stated as a matter of concern was the cost of new school construction compared to expanding existing schools and the effect of dispersed (geographically speaking) parent groups and students.

The parents group cited the fact it took four years of effort for the science program now in exitence at Miramonte to become a reality. It took five years to institute the Humanities Seminar, and six years to form an orchestra, which will go through birth pangs in September.

A REPRESENTATIVE of the parents' group who wishes to remain anonymous said, "We realize that perhaps we are taking a selfish attitude because this strikes close to home, our children, but we have worked for our own and others the past few years to insure these opportunities and it is disappointing to think our present eighth-graders may have to forfeit the fruits of our efforts."

Ross Reagan, assistant superintendent of business, Acalanes district, said, "I think I am expressing the unanimous opinion of the board when I say we feel we have set a pattern of opening new schools that has worked well, and the district believes we have good high schools. Our method, adding one class at a time to a new high school, has been proven.

"The board, in effect, said 'no' to the parents requesting a delay in the construction of Rheem. There has never been a complete meeting of the minds in opening new schools, but we (the district) feel we can offer a complete and adequate program."

REAGAN EXPLAINED that there is no escape for the cost of school construction. He said that the cost per pupil, above a certain size school is $2000 per pupil.

"Basically," Reagan said, there is little difference in making larger schools than in constructing another."

Reagan explained that while the board was sympathetic to the parents' group, they could not consider mass transfer of second, third and fourth year students from existing high schools to the new high school to make it a complete unit in its first year.

"Our existing plan of adding a class a year has been proven. This sounds blunt, and neither the administrators nor the board intend any affront, but we did not feel that the parents' group appearing before us Monday had any better solution for our expanding student population.

"Until we find a better solution, we must proceed according to proven plan," Reagan said.

REPRESENTATIVES of the parents' group expressed embarrassment to The Sun for protesting the construction of the new high school at a board meeting where bids were called for construction of this same school.

The parents' group would have appeared before the Acalanes board earlier, but they understood, according to their representative, that the bonds for building would not be sold until July 1 and bids called at some later date.

"We are sure there was no subterfuge on the part of the board," the spokesman said. "It is just one of those things that happen when the public is apathetic until the last ditch is reached and there is lack of communication within district official departments."

The spokesman was referring to the fact the construction bonds were sold and bids called for several weeks prior to what the group had thought would be B-day.

ASSURED BY the Acalanes board that students attending Rheem High would have an adequate program, even if it meant transporting some special classes to a joint class at Miramonte, the parents' group retired amicably with certain understandings.

These are: Future purchases of school sites should be considered by the citizens involved before purchased by the district.

According to the parents involved, when a district buys land they take a 30-year loan from the state. If the building is not prepared on the site in five years, the district must repay the loan immediately.

This same parent group is planning to meet in October after boundaries for attendance at Rheem are officially established, to organize to help the school.

They also said, "We feel that the Acalanes board is cognizant of the fact parents of these prospective students will demand from Rheem what is available now at Miramonte.

According to Reagan, the district is prepared to deliver the goods anticipated. According to the parents' group, they are not happy, but agreed that the "goods will be delivered."

Moraga Trustees Set Budget 25-cent Tax Increase Seen

A total budget figure of $237,420 was approved by the Moraga School Board Monday night.

Of this figure, $30,000 is carryover from last year. This leaves $207,420 to be raised from taxes, to be contributed from state funds and other allocations.

A tentative $123,100 will have to be raised from local district taxation, according to the board.

THIS FIGURE is the net amount left after other methods of accruing money are completed.

Last year the tax rate in the Moraga District was $2.03 per $100 of assessed valuation. The calculated guess for this year is a $2.28 rate, or a 25 cent increase.

The taxable limit, as voted by the district citizens previously, is $2.75 The latest property valuation figure in the Moraga School District area is about $6 million according to the county assessor's office as told to Bob Trask, assistant principal at Rheem School.

OF THE new budget figure, $121,900 is tagged for instruction, i.e.: teachers and principals.

The board voted the salaries of Charles Toll and Robert Trask at the board meeting also.

Toll, currently Rheem School principal, will receive $9520, an eight per cent increase over last year. His specific title will not be determined until the new superintendent takes office.

Trask, who is assistant principal to Toll, will get a 10 per cent increase or $8910 for the coming year.

THE TRUSTEES based their administrative salary policy on the following points: Moraga School District has no set policy formula for administrative personnel; the two schools (Rheem and Camino Pablo)) are only half the size of normal schools in this area; the duties are different from similar positions in other districts.

Thus the salary policy is now based on the individual, according to the trustees.

A proposed classified personnel salary schedule based on a 40-hour week was accepted by the board. They stipulated, however, that the board may grant a higher salary if it is warranted by conditions.

Beginning salary for a school secretary in the Moraga District will be $325. This is regardless of previous experience, with no shorthand required.

THE SCHOOL secretary will work 10½ months from August 15 to June 30 with two weeks vacation to be taken at Christmas and Easter time After five years the top or peak salary will be $405.

Beginning wages for a full-time custodian will be $350 with a $430 top salary after five years.

The custodian will work all year round with two weeks vacation to be taken in the summer months.

In action on insurance matters, the board authorized an insurance program with some revisions. The total annual premium for the district, which includes Rheem, Old Moraga and Camino Pablo schools, is $1400.

CHANGES included: writing liability policy for three years rather than one year at a time; personal injury to be provided on policy; name of insured on liability to include the individual names of the board members.

The Moraga School District is insured by Cook, Disharoon and Greathouse of Oakland.

Service contracts were awarded for ant and other insect control for $219 for a 12-month contract.

The heating system maintenance 10-month contract was awarded for $52 per month covering both Rheem and Camino Pablo schools.

June Bugs Me!

ONE TRACK MIND: Having driven Burt Brody's dghtr. home, my young son & I were introduced to their houseguest, Burt's long-time friend Bernie Speiler, a tall distinguished & very hirsute a la Hemmingway gentleman from Holland. Tooling homeward, my boy remarked that the bearded chap looked like a Scientist & I told him, No, the distinguished fellow played bass w/the Amsterdam Concert Orchestra . . . after which my boy sat up excittedly—"Gee! First, Second or Third?"

WHEN the SMSG (mathematics) program was under discussion at the early June meet of the Orinda Parents' Club, one father in the audience barraged the egghead speaker w/a long complicated question after which the guest Math speaker shot back "No wonder your club has controversial meetings . . ." & who told HIM?

Same night, it delighted the audience of some bewildered parents that the other visiting math man from Scott Fersman made three errors on the blackboard, one in his figuring which was caught by a militant mother in the front row!

WITH THE MOISEYEV BALLET playing here recently, it was amusing to hear how many ways people, esp. radio announcers (they're people?) pronounced the name of the group. Reminded us that when they were here before, our Roosian friend Mela Fontaine set us straight. It's simply pronounced phonetically said she, the way it's spelled, but everyone tries so hard their own roll-of-the-tongue version.

Well, it's June which means that the Tom Courtrights of El Toyonal have lived Happly Together for FIFTY plus one-half years & better late than never to wish the couple Congratulations on their Golden Wedding Annvy. which they celebrated last Jan. 6 . . . Tom Courtright, the patriarch of the local Courtright Clan, will be among those attending the 75th Annvy. celebration of Oakland's Emmanuel Presbyterian Church Sunday, July 9 . . . having been a member of the church at 430-49th St. since Way Back When . . . . Other Orindans who plan to attend are the John Sobeys & George Rosekranzes.

DOG DAYS . . . Afront of Ogden's, gorgeous sable & white collie taking up the whole front seat of a Volkswagen & panting towards the next car, a big shiney station wagon in which looked lost & lonely a feminine little French Poodle dog w/a pert pink hair-bow in her forelocks . . . GLITTER CIRCUIT: Charlotte Chapple, the gal who decorates our halls, (a superb job on the Pine Grove grads dance) but anyway, because she's usually working on several things at once, you can always detect circumstantial evidence on her—paint or sequins, glitter & gold. She scatters golddust from her pockets & leaves a trail of sequins in her walk & recently reaching into her coat pocket for something brought out a handfull of stardust . . . Just like my dear good Flairy Godmother used to do!

SIGHTEM: Lips that glitter fascinated the young fry at Orinda Park Pool recently. It was Madeline Benjamin breaking in some glamorous new sparkling lipstick. My kids called it "Ipswitch" when they were learning to talk!

Firing Ends Era for Artists

Mrs. Wenker Voted Out; Art Commission Coming

By NORMAN COLBY

The era when the Diablo Pageant of Arts Society was Evadne Wenker and Evadne Wenker was the Diablo Pageant of Arts Society has come to an end

It appears that the society's continuous efforts for local artists and annual back-breaking task of building a money-making show will no longer depend on one talented (if not tactful) woman, who was willing and able to devote seven days a week, 12 months a year to the cause.

Here is a list of recent swift-moving events, related directly or indirectly to the new situation:

1. THE WALNUT Creek City Council, before the society's crisis arose, decided to appoint an art commission of five members, with the power to plan the use of city facilities for art events and recommend actual city involvement in art programs. Members will be named soon.

2. Later, several Diablo Pageant of Arts Society directors, whose organization is independent of the city, voted to fire Mrs. Wenker who has been executive vice-president and the only full-time, unpaid, volunteer worker since the society was formed about six years ago.

Sharp personal disagreements are apparently the reason.

The firing came during an "evaluation" meeting, held in the city park's quonset hut. It was called by society president James Wells.

3. DISSENTION between Mrs. Wenker and the directors became so heated after the vote that city officials, accompanied by police officers, were called to the scene, and the quonset hut was "padlocked."

Pageant leaders have been admitted since then only by permission of the city.

4. A decision was made to terminate the society's use of the quonset hut as an art gallery with offices, perhaps preparatory to the new art commission's decision on the later use of the hut

5. Society president Wells announced that his group is looking for new quarters, where it can re-establish the art gallery and lay plans for completely reorganizing the society, from top to bottom.

6. WELLS SAID the reorganization will systematize the society's entire program, with emphasis not only on paintings but also music, drama and all other forms of original and creative expression. Its efforts will be year-round, he said.

This will involve contacting all local civic and social groups to learn when they can contribute.

Wells expressed regret that the termination of Mrs. Wenker's responsibility became "necessary," and he admitted that she has been the driving force during the years when the society was getting on its feet.

Wells said the society has submitted nominees for the art commission, and he believes they will be top-quality people, most of whom will be musicians in their own right.

AS A RESULT, art in Walnut Creek will not become a political thing, but will expand to its true potential, he said.

And the art program will not become part of Mrs. Ruth Wallis' recreation department, subordinate to the parks and recreation commission, he added.

A number of artists had expressed the opinion that this might result.

Present at the evaluation meeting were Wells, Mrs. Eleanor Condon, first vice-president; David Borton, corresponding secretary; Herbert VanHoboken, Baya Rocklin, and Mrs. Wenker, also a director

NOT PRESENT were Vi Strickland, second vice-president, who has been handling press relations; Aki Toriyama, recording secretary; Mrs. Joyce Zaharias, who is seriously ill; Forrest Englehart, Mrs. Itala Gambino, John Nejedly, the legal advisor, and Mrs. Wallis, parliamentarian.

Wells said he abstained from the voting, and it was indicated that Mrs. Condon also abstained.

The basic problem has been summarized by two lines of argument:

1. Mrs. Wenker had become so strongly assertive in fulfilling her job as wheelhorse that she would not allow other directors to assume their load of work and make appropriate decisions; or

2. THE directors did not make sufficient effort to assist in preparation for the annual pageant, held in May. "They gave her responsibility and she took it. And they resented it," said one Wenker supporter.

Said Mrs. Wenker later, "Perhaps it is time for a change. I know I'm not the easiest person to get along with But I got things done when there didn't seem to be anyone else around to do them."

The question of the relation of the Pageant of Arts Society to the city and its arts commission is not being answered directly at this time by top officials on either side.

Said Wells, "We will give all the help and support we can to the art commission. Our society will handle next year's big show, but perhaps with city advice and help.

"THE RICHMOND Art Center is an example of how a city can develop this kind of a program. This could lead to coordination between and participation by all local art groups, and a realization of a new brand of art culture in the entire area."

Wells added that the society is now looking over candidates for the post of executive vice-president.

Another question of just what led the city to close the quonset hut and change the locks after Mrs. Wenker removed her possessions is still up in the air.

Reportedly, some of the artists who participated in the recent show in May and who have been showing their works in the quonset hut gallery are "horrified" by the turn of events.

HIGH PRIORITY undoubtedly will go to wooing them back to the new society organization, once the new quarters are found.

Wells has indicated that the new quarters will be in or very near Walnut Creek.

Who knows what the new art commission will decide?

Its members may reopen the hut as a gallery under city auspices, under some agreement with the society.

Whatever the outcome, it was Mrs. Evadne Wenker who took art in Walnut Creek out of the portrait-in-a-store-window stage and put it in the big time, where the city fathers are now anxious to get on the bandwagon

Therapy Center Nominated for Award

The Mt. Diablo Therapy Center has just been named a semi-finalist in the Lane Bryant Annual Awards competition and has been honored with a citation in recognition of outstanding community service in 1960.

The Center was nominated for this award by Mrs. A. L. Zeigler, chairman of the grants committee of the center's board of directors.

The citation means that the center is among those finalists being actively considered for one of the two awards of $1000 given annually to encourage voluntary participation in efforts designed to benefit American home and community life.

One award is made to an individual and one to a group.

FINAL SELECTION for the awards will be made by a panel of five judges. They are Erwin D. Canham, editor, The Christian Science Monitor; General Alfred M. Gruenther, president, American National Red Cross; Mrs. Mary G. Roebling, president Trenton Trust Company; George Romney, president, American Motors Corporation; and Henry M. Wriston, president, the American Assembly, Columbia University.

Sharing the center's pride in receiving the Lane Bryant Citation are the 600 women of the 17 Auxiliary Units who support the center's program. Through such activities as thrift shops, rummage sales, dances, the Decorama, luncheons and fashion shows, to name only a few, these dedicated women provide one-third of the center's operating expenses. One of the major services of the center, that of transportation of patients, is provided by unit members.

Each unit has an efficient motor corps standing by to assist in bringing patients to and from the center who would otherwise be unable to receive treatment.

NOT CONTENT with the many hours and dollars they have already contributed, these enthusiastic ladies have embarked upon an additional project, the operation of a tearoom.

Located at 1475 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek (adjacent to the Broadway Shopping Center), the Therapy Center Terrace, Inc. opened on June 5. It is open for "coffee and conversation" every day of the week except Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Luncheon is served from noon to 2 p.m. by volunteer staff and, from time to time, fashion shows, art exhibits and other activities of community interest will be held. Total proceeds of the Therapy Center Terrace, a non-profti organization, will benefit the rehabilitation program of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Golf Club Road, Pleasant Hill.

The combined efforts of the auxiliary units began in 1950 when a group of interested women were brought together by Mrs. Ida Zamlock of Orinda to discuss the feasibility of organizing auxiliaries to raise funds for the support and operation of the center.

AS A RESULT, two auxiliary units were formed in Orinda, the Orioles and the Tanagers. Two years later there were two more such auxiliaries, the Lafayette Larks and the Mary Doyle Unit of San Ramon Valley. With the exception of the Mary Doyle Unit, named for the physical therapist to whom the community first turned during the 1949 polio epidemic, all 17 auxiliaries are named for birds.

In 1954 a group of young girls attending Acalanes High School requested permission to form the first junior unit of the Center. Under the sponsorship of the Orinda Orioles, these girls formed the Dove Unit. Today there are five such junior units—the Doves are now sponsored by the Flicker Unit; the Parakeets by the Mary Doyle Unit; the Bobolinks by the Tanager Unit; the Junior Larks by the Lark Unit; and the Virios by the Oriole Unit.

THE COMBINED membership numbers some 200 teenagers serving their community by supporting the Center program. These young people are learning the rewards of community service and becoming a part of the volunteer effort by their contributions. They give assistance at the Therapy Center Terrace, conduct fund raising activities and, during the summer months, the girls work as aides at the center filling in where needed in the office, acting as receptionists and supervising small children in the playyard.

THE SOCIAL EVENTS and activities of the Units and "Juniors" are attended by many people in the County. "They are the friends of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center," said Mrs. Rene Kennedy, chairman of the Unit Coordinating Council. "Without the help and support of the many men and women who donate to and attend these activities there would be no Center."

Thus, the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, ideal product of community service and support, was nominated for consideration in the Lane Bryant Annual Awards competition. Final selection from among the semi-finalists will be presented with the Award on November 16, 1961, in New York City.

DA Nejedly Points With Pride

District Attorney John Nejedly "pointed with pride" Tuesday, as he outlined the operations of his office to the County Board of Supervisors.

Nejedly listed the development of an investigative unit, a consumer fraud section, a polygraph facility and a welfare investigative agency.

He noted that the payments by fathers who have absented themselves from home to the mothers of children has increased greatly, and the total last year was $322,984.

He added that these monies were paid to the mother through the social service and probation departments, and the total would more than double if the direct payments were included.

Nejedly said the new "get tough" policy on drunk drivers had resulted in fewer police arrests during the past year, and he was backed up by several police chiefs, including Leigh Brilliant of Walnut Creek.

Nejedly also discussed the operations costs of his department.

Public to View Motor Home

The Dodge Motor Home has its own 30 gallon water tank and complete facilities. It also has a standard trailer court hook up for water, electric and waste disposal.

A powerful eight cylinder 200 horsepower engine makes even mountain trips a pleasure. The motor home is 26 feet long and seven feet, six inches wide, with plenty of comfortable living and sleeping space tastefully decorated.

La Val's Opens at Rheem Next Week; Fun for All!

Twenty-four acres designed for pure pleasure with a restaurant that will stay open until 2 a.m. for a dinner, snack or take home treat will open next weekend at Rheem Center on the Carroll Country Club site.

Known as La Val's, this dream-come-true-at-home for East Bay residents will offer everything in the way of pleasure, recreation and fine foods . . . even a personalized catering servie, according to Joe Valencia, owner.

The restaurant, open from 11 a.m. to 2 a.m., will feaure family style dinners, including fresh vegetables, salad, wine . . . the works. All, according to Valencia, at a good old fashion price, less than one normally pays for a dinner, anywhere.

THESE SPECIAL family style dinners will be served only from 5 to 9:30 p.m. to insure fresh food served to suit the most discriminating appetite. However, the restaurant will serve luncheons, dinners, snacks during the entire 11 a m. to 2 a.m. hours.

"Nothing," Valencia said, "that we serve is just plain. We put creative thought and labor into all our dishes, be it the family style dinner or our other menu offerings."

With indoor-outdoor dining facilities, guests at La Val's may "come as they are." Shorts or cocktail dress or more, La Val's has the atmosprere in its many facilities to suit the guest.

LA VAL'S can provide for a private party of 400, inside, or 200 on the patio. Private party, or individual, or general public, La Val's can accomodate, according to Valencia.

Golf, driving range, swimming pool, three bars, you name it, La Val's has it. "We hope to beome a landmark in the East Bay," Valencia said.

"We offer the finest to be found in private clubs, but we are open to the public. Anyone may use our facilities. We hope particularly to serve the youth of our area. Our pizzas are already known, and with snack food available here or to take home, plus our dancing and other recreational facilities we expect to be the scene of many events for youth."

La Val's can provide a "package," according to the owner. This package, Valencia said, is styled to what the host of hostess wants from food to music and decorations. Friendly and experienced, Valencia can help with party problems.

THE ATTRACTIVE and hospitable buildings and grounds of La Val's are designed and decorated in Mediterranean style. Although La Val's will be open next weekend, the "grand opening" is scheduled for July 26 and 27.

Del Courtney will provide dancing music on these dates. Valencia said special dancing programs will be held on the holidays of every month, such as Valentine's Day, Labor Day, Father's Day and so forth.

La Val's comes to Rheem with an established record of popularity and fine service. Therefore, Valencia suggests that those planning a party, banquet or other event, call well in advance of the date to be sure of finding reservations available.

Death Listed As Suicide

The death of Mrs. Ruth M. McCormick, 48, has been listed as a suicide by the Contra Costa County Coroner's office.

Mrs. McCormick died June 15 from an overdose of barbiturates, according to an autopsy report.

Her body was found by her husband, James, in their home at 10 Del Mar Court, Orinda, according to the report.

No Pay Raises For Most County Employees Now

A vote against any general pay increase for the county's 2500 employees was recorded Tuesday by Contra Costa supervisors.

There were some salary adjustments which will cost an extra $70,000 per year, however.

The employee unions had asked for a $30 across-the-board increase, which would have cost an extra $850,000 per year, according to County Administrator J. P. McBrien.

The County Civil Service Commission had recommended that the supervisors "hold the line" on salaries this year.

A fourth week of vacation after 20 years of service had already been granted, along with an increase in the county's share of employees' group health insurance premiums from $7.50 to $8.25 per month.

The board, on suggestion of Supervisor Mel Nielsen, will give further study to the salaries of construction inspectors, sanitarians, sheriff's officers, firemen and also Arthur Seeley, the county agricultural commissioner.

Additional consideration for new pay rates in the Public Works Department was also requested by Supervisor Tom Coll.

The firemen's salaries may be given another look in January.

Grand Jury Criticized by Hiring Policies

By relaxing certain civil service regulations, the hiring practices of the local county government can be improved, reported the Contra Costa Grand Jury, this week.

Department heads should have broader discretion in personnel selection, especially in the higher ratings, the Jury's report said.

The report criticized the requirement that hiring be limited to the top three applicants in the civil service tests.

The report said probationary periods for highly technical jobs should be extended to six months.

Tapayers Against County Post

The Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association protested the county proposal for the creation of a county public defender's office recently.

County Administrator J. P. McBrien reocmmended the new office last March.

L. E. Carbert, association president, suggested in a letter to the board of supervisors they obtain suggestions from private law firms on how the county could provide defense for defendants who cannot pay for it.

AT PRESENT, judges appoint private lawyers to take defendants as cases. These lawyers are compensated by the county.

Last March the board decided to seek the advice of the Contra Costa Bar Association on the matter.

According to a spokesman for the bar association, the committee studying the proposal favored the plan of a public defender. However, no formal adoptions have been made.

THE TAXPAYERS group is against the measure because it creates an additional specialized function in county government.

The Marshall Steel Cleaners at 1870 Oak Park Boulevard was broken into over the weekend and $18.30 taken from the counter change drawer.

A rear window was broken to gain entry to the store.

Operator A. L. Knight of 104 Lakewood Road, Walnut Creek, reported the burglary when he arrived at work Monday morning. The cleaners is closed from Saturday at 6 p.m. until Monday morning.

Barbara Jensen of 1200 Alpine Road in Walnut Creek reported to deputies that $224 was taken from her purse at the Pacific Air Conditioning Sales Corporation, 3325 North Main Street.

She told officers that she placed the purse in the ladies restroom at 2 p.m. The money was missing when she returned at 3:20, she said.

The money belonged to the company, officers were told.

Owner William Shackleford gave Miss Jensen the money because the company safe was not operating.

The money was all in small bills, a $20 bill being the largest

The front office was open at the time of the robbery, deputies reported.

Letters to The Editor

EL TOYONAL
Dear Editor:

Reckless drivers, rushing commuters, concentrating contractors, carefree youths, road hogs, I've met them all with applied brakes and pounding heart.

The terrain is a deciding factor of the speed which these individuals travel and always will be, but if the road were wider there would be some protection from them not now afforded on El Toyonal.

CONSIDER that El Toyonal was never designed as a residential road unlike other roads in Orinda. It was meant as a rude entry to summer homes. Other than heavy paving it has remained a rude entry for ourselves and our friends. Now El Toyonal is a growing residential area. Why have we not been given a proper road?

And The Sun reports that the County Public Works Director has advised the board of supervisors not to budget funds for major road improvements on El Toyonal.

Granted people with small cars, or people who live near the bottom or people who have infringed on the established road right of way will object for reasons such as nice country living or dear old trees or fast moving traffic, which we have anyway along with great hazard. Yet I have not met anyone who will not agree there are extremely dangerous areas.

IT'S AMAZING to see how letters and pressure are the deciding factor and not the actual need. This is why I'm writing this letter.

So far many of us have sat back and watched the committee steam forward getting the required petition signatures, public meeting, advice, etc., and thought how wonderful are these democratic processes.

But they have met such a wall I fear they will quit. I really decided to help when the chairman traded in her big family station wagon for a Hillman.

Come forward, fellow tight rope drivers. Our lives and safety are swinging in the balance of the support you can give.

MRS. SUSAN McCARTHY

The program includes studies of various business organizational structures, emphasizing the roles of life insurance and career life underwriting play in the successful operation of those businesses.

Making successful conclusion of the studies, Peek presented Philibosian with a certificate of completion signed by Edgar M. Kelly, executive director of agencies for the company.

Donna Sets Japan Swim Record

Donna de Varona, 14-year-old swimming star from Lafayette, set a Japan record in the 50-meter backstroke Sunday in Tokyo.

The Olympic swimmer set a new mark of 33.8 seconds, bettering the old standard of 34.8 seconds set by Japan's Olympic bronze metal winner Satoko Tanaka last year.

The new record was established in the Tokyo metropolitan junior swimming meet.

Three other teen-age swimmers are competing in Japan with Miss de Varona on a goodwill tour of Japan.

Each won their races held in Tokyo's 50-meter outdoor Meiji pool.

David Deubner Takes Special Summer Study

David Deubner of Orinda, a student at Miramonte High School, will work and study with Professor James R. Arnold in chemistry research this summer at the University of California campus at San Diego.

David reported last week to the campus which comprises the Scripps Institution of Oceanography and the School of Science and Engineering which regularly accept only students who have their bachelor's degrees from colleges or universities.

FORTY-FIVE teenagers are being given the opportunity to work with graduate students and professional scientists in the "junior trainee" program.

For eight weeks the students will work in the laboratory and field where they will be under the supervision of scientific specialists in the fields the youths expect to pursue.

Carlton E. Thomas Is College Grad

Carlton E. Thomas of Orinda has been graduated with a bachelor of science degree in engineering from the University of Michigan.

Degrees were awarded June 17 at the 117th commencement exercise at the Ann Arbor, Michigan, campus.

Need Brings a Center

In the beginning there was the need. An epidemic of polio had swept over the United States. In its wake there was death and what for some was "living death"—physical handicap.

Mary Doyle, a physical therapist, offered her skills to neighbors and friends whose children had been stricken. Local doctors hearing of her work, sent patients to Mrs. Doyle. A Walnut Creek pastor, Rev. Haven Martin, of the Methodist Church, offered the back room of his church for a clinic.

SOME LADIES of the Red Cross donated one of their cutting tables—a board across two sawhorses—to be used for a treatment table. Someone brought an old sewing machine cabinet with the treadle intact to be used to exercise weakened ankles. As a direct result of these voluntary social service offerings, the first "center" opened its doors in February, 1946.

Mort Brown, a Walnut Creek automobile dealer, anxious to help, visited the clinic one day and recognized the need for more adequate facilities so that not only the "polios" but all handicapped could receive help.

He appeared before service clubs, the PTA and civic organizations. Soon the word spread. They, together with church groups, fraternal organizations and private citizens combined in a massive effort to raise funds and, in January, 1950, the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center was established in a house in Lafayette which had been altered to suit therapeutic needs.

UNDER THE laws of the State of California, the center was incorporated as a non-profit community project for the treatment of the physically handicapped in the Mt. Diablo area. Now hemiplegias, paraplegias, amputees and industrial accident cases could be sent by their physicians to receive treatment.

Mrs. Ida Zamlock of Orinda, who worked as an aide for Mrs. Doyle, called together a group of friends and told them of the work being done, of other aides being needed, of transportation facilities which could be offered.

The result was the formation of "units" of women who donated their services from throughout the central county area. In addition, they organized and held social events to raise much needed financial assistance. In December of 1950, the center again outgrew its quarters and was moved free of charge to the Highland Medical Building in Walnut Creek.

IN 1953, the people of Contra Costa County responded generously to a building fund drive with cash and pledges totaling $75,000. However, that was only the beginning. Through the efforts of donated time, equipment, materials and additional funds, the people of this community have built a $142,000 center and sheltered workshop on Golf Club Road, Pleasant Hill.

There, the handicapped person is treated and assisted in the transition back to a competitive labor market or again becoming a useful part of the community.

The Mt. Diablo Therapy Center is prepared to meet the needs of all patients referred by local physicians. Patients may receive care on a full-pay, part-pay or free care basis.

MRS. DOYLE has long since moved from the area, leaving behind her an organization dedicated to the rehabilitatioin of the handicapped. Thirty-two businessmen and unit representatives donate their time to serve on the board of directors.

Eighty medical men prescribe the center's facilities for an ever-enlarging area of handicapped victims, working with the therapists to guide the patient back into a useful and productive life.

Over 500 women have become engaged in supporting the center through their fund-raising activities. Five junior units composed of high school girls in four communities are learning the meaning of "volunteer service."

IN SPITE of the amazing progress from humble beginnings born of necessity, there is still the need growing greater as the population increases.

The center exists today because an alert community recognized this need and gave it wholehearted support. This area may be proud of its part in creating the only entirely community-supported therapy center in the United States, one that is truly dedicated to "helping others to help themselves."

Aquabears Set 5 National Records in Meet

The Aquabears broke five national and Pacific Association swimming records in the Ninth Annual AAU Age Group San Leandro Swimming Relays last weekend in San Leandro.

They took third place in team standing with 178 points.

Seventeen clubs entered a total of 314 relay teams.

Winning the boys' 13-14 400-yard medley relay for the Aquabears were Bob Kammeyer, Bob Schwiers, John Fabris and Duke Gibbs.

Their record time was 4:11.9. Another record was set in the boys' 13-14 400-yard freestyle relay race.

Kammeyer, Schwiers, Bob Moore and Fabris made up the winning combination.

Their time was 3:49.6.

In the boys' 15-16 group 200-yard medley relay, the team of Larry Flick, Peter Foor, Charles Schillinsky and Dick Jacobberger was victorious for the Aquabears.

Their time was 1:48.7, setting another national record.

Also in the 15-16 group, the team of Tom Jochums, Flick, Schillinsky and Jacobberger won the 200-yard freestyle relay.

They finished in a record time of 1:34.8.

The same team won the 400-yard freestyle relay, finishing in 3:23.3 to produce the Aquabears' fifth first place and national record.

Is Your Family Safe, Or Don't You Care?..

Polio cripples, and it is still an ugly word . . . an ugly disease.

We all know the story of the horse that could be led to water, but couldn't be made to drink.

Unfortunately, there are too many "horses" right here in our own community . . . people, both children and adults, who have every opportunity to get their polio shots, but who have not yet done so.

There is a new state law on the books. Polio shots will be required for children who are attending school.

IN MANY RESPECTS this is a ridiculous situation. You should not have to pass legislation to make people do what is really for their benefit.

Polio shots can be obtained from the County Health Department for nothing. Your own family physician will be glad to see that your whole family receives the series.

But still, people don't do it.

There is even confusion about how many shots should be taken and when they should be taken.

Here is the word from Dr. Henrik Blum, county health officer, on this.

Generally speaking, he said, two injections should be given, one month apart, to get the program started. A third injection should be given from seven to twelve months after the second is received. A fourth injection should be taken a year after the third.

THEN, SAID Dr. Blum, from what we know now, it is a good idea to get a booster shot every three years after that.

How does your family stack up, according to this schedule?

All right, where do you get your shots?

First of all, your family physician can take care of you, for very little expense.

But, if you prefer, the county offers free injection clinics where shots are given, not only for polio, but for other diseases as well.

There is no stigma attached to attending these clinics. The only disadvantage is that there is no permanent record of the shots that members of your family receives.

WHEN AND where are these clinics given? Here is the schedule for the remainder of this year for the central county area.

Pleasant Hill: Community Baptist Church, 924 Pleasant Hill Road, the second Tuesday in July, August and September.

The Health Department Clinic, 1750 Oak Park Boulevard, the second Tuesday in October, November and December.

Walnut Creek: The Presbyterian Church, 1720 Oakland Boulevard, the fourth Wednesday of each month.

It may be a little trouble to bundle your family—or yourself—into a car and drive to one of these clinics.

BUT ISN'T it more trouble to go through the pain and expense—and possible lasting paralysis—of polio itself?

One other comment from Dr. Blum, regarding the necessity of polio shots for school youngsters.

"Don't wait until your child is of school age before seeing that he gets his injections. He can contract polio long before the law says that he has to be immunized."

So, it's up to you.

How does your family measure up?

But Nothing Happens...

You may not realize it, but you are an ex-officio member of a very important committee.

That committee is the Contra Costa County Grand Jury.

The 1960-61 grand jury has just completed its work, and many fine recommendations have come from the hard working members of its various committees.

Although we do not agree with everything they had to say, we are glad to admit that there were top-flight recommendations included in their reports.

UNFORTUNATELY, there is nothing that we can do to see that these recommendations are acted upon — or even studied.

It is sad to relate, but true. A few years ago a couple of our elected officials admitted that they had not even read the reports of the grand jury . . . and these reports dealt directly with their own departments.

Sad to relate, it is almost traditional in this county that public officials do little or nothing about the recommendations of the grand jury committees.

It is up to our board of supervisors to see that the many, many hours of work put in by this excellent grand jury are not wasted.

REMEMBER, THE grand jury is YOU, the homeowner . . . the taxpayer. The work that is done by this watchdog group is for your benefit. Grand jury members are local residents and homeowners, just as you are. It is truly a citizens' group.

But unfortunately we, who are citizens but not members of the board of supervisors, can do little to see that our recommendations are put into force.

That is up to your elected supervisors, and they should certainly see that the job is done.

And not done like it has been in past years . . . ignored.

The grand jury foreman made an interesting recommendation in his final report. He suggested that the terms of grand jurors should be set at 18 months instead of the present 12. He listed many possible benefits of this system.

We feel that the state legislature should certainly be made aware of this recommendation, and should study the possibilities.

WE WOULD ALSO like to suggest that the possibility of hold-over grand jury members should be considered.

The Sun has made this recommendation before, and it still seems to make sense.

Each year a completely fresh jury is assembled. Although the members presumably read the reports of preceding grand juries, they still must go through much preliminary duplication before they can get to the heart of their tasks.

Is it not possible that staggering the terms of jurors could be arranged to the benefit of the people?

Our Country Needs More Yankee Doodle Dandies

By MARIE MONAHAN

WE'RE A LONG WAY, our generation, from the old Fourth of July celebrations . . . & it's our own fault!

For the spirit of the day lies with the flag that seems to have gone out of style and NOT with the fireworks that went out the window!

DURING our growing-up years, Old Glory was a much-revered part of our daily existence. Our parents, many of them from the old country, possessed a special reverence for the Stars & Stripes. To fly or wave the flag was a beautiful and priceless privilege!

THERE WAS then a kind of family ceremony about hanging up the flag & shame on anyone in the neighborhood who didn't, on the holidays, have theirs up the flagpole or out the window by the first fresh hour of the day!

The kiddies clambered through the thick crowds to watch the veterans parade—& covered the curbstones or stood on boxes waving spiritedly their little red, white & blue banners from the five & dime.

WE STOOD PROUD & tall alongside Mother & Dad while we sang the Star Spangled Banner & just the sound of the words of the pledge of allegiance sets hearts beating faster.

There was no shy or self-conscious or "corny" feeling about singing out clearly the national anthem . . . (You would have been shyer or more self-conscious if you HADN'T given it all you had!)

WHAT this country needs, methinks, is MORE Yankee Doodle Dandies!

It still takes just a few bars of a George M. Cohan tune to set my feet itchin' for a parade down Main Street.

"She's a grand old flag, she's a high-flyin' flag" . . .

COHAN, the original Yankee Doodle Kid (born on July 3rd actually) penned some of the best patriotic songs ever written.

True, it may have been more showmanship than patriotism on his part, but when the little Broadway Irishman sang & waved the flag on stage, the crowds went wild & his kind of contagious patriotism produced a long era of flag-wavers & parade-lovers.

Cohan's real name was "Keohane" & his ancestery was Irish thought he was Jewish & the Irish KNEW he was Irish—which on the last syllable) caused some mix-ups in his life. The Jews though he was Jewish & the Irish KNEW he was Irish—which altogether made him more of a Yankee Doodle Kid!

THE DAY after America went to war in 1917, Cohan dashed off a song he referred to as a Bugle Call. It was the greatest of his career, sold almost two million copies, won him a Congressional Medal & we've never seen a song SINCE that could match "Over There."

After World War I, flags flew from windows & autos, from rooftops & flagposts . . . The country was GLAD for America & gladder to show it!

It is a privilege of our Free World to fly our flag. If we don't fly it, we don't deserve that privilege.

George M. Cohan would turn over in his grave if he ever heard the word "corny"—or "silly"—or some of the namby-pamby excuses for not displaying the flag.

I THINK WASHINGTON, Lincoln & Franklin D. would roll right over with him!

EXCHANGE
Dear Editor:

For a while, Congressman John Baldwin wasn't sounding like a typical windy politician.

How, with his blast about "blackmail" because of the proposed tractors - prisoners exchange, he's sounding like Senator Claghorn of radio fame.

We boo-boo'd in Cuba, so we have to pay the price!

I'm sure if John or I or anyone else were held prisoner tonight in Cuba or any place else in the world, we'd want "out."

And we'd want our government or some private agency to get busy. . . .

"YEAR" ENDS
Dear Editor:

Another school year has ended at Saint Mary's College, and once again I want to say "thank you" for your cooperation throughout the year.

Your coverage of news about the College and the people connected with it has been deeply appreciated by every segment of the campus family—administration, faculty, students and alumni.

MRS. PAT LAWRENCE

FAREWELL
Dear Editor:

This is my last column and I want to thank you for the opportunity you have given me this year to write for The Sun.

It has taught me responsibility and appreciation towards all newspaper articles. I certainly have a better insight into what is involved in writing for the public.

I hope to continue working for a newspaper—a college paper—next fall when I am at Scripps.

PENNY COUDEN

RETARDED
Dear Editor:

I wish to thank The Sun personally, for its kind donation to our schools, supported by the Council for the Retarded, East Contra Costa County, Inc.

It is only through the efforts of local organizations such as yours that we are able to carry on our work with the retarded children.

Let's Go to a Barbecue In a Little Grass Shack

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

PAPEETE, TAHITI—Has someone invited you over for a Sunday barbecue and swim? This happened to me last Sunday. (By the time you read this, I will be home in sunny Contra Costa County, but let me tell you about it.)

Dick and his beautiful Tahitian wife, Lili, asked me to join them—at a Sunday family party at Andre's house.

So we piled into the Renault—along with adorable, blonde baby, Moravia—and started on our 50-kilometer drive to the opposite side of Tahiti.

Yes, Contra Costa County is beautiful—but you don't see thousands of stately cocopalms, banana trees and funny papayas—and the highway lined with colorful hibiscus and bougainvillea.

Yes, our Mt. Diablo is beautiful—but it's different from the black-sand beaches, coral shores and blue water splashing alongside the highway.

To the left, I see the shoreline; to the right are the rolling green hills that climb to high peaks. Waterfalls cascade from the hills. All in a setting of lush, green tropical plants growing everywhere.

A great, big park

It's like driving for miles in a beautiful park—but no gardeners are in sight. They aren't needed.

Voila! We are here. No, it isn't a modern ranch home. We walk to a grass shack — bamboo walls, pandemus roof, sand floor and windows opening toward the roaring sea—only 40 feet away.

This is the separate cooking and dining area. Another wooden building houses the living-sleeping quarters and in another building nearby are the showers and toilet. This is a common arrangement in Tahiti.

Dick and Lili are greeted a-la-France with kisses on each cheek. I am greeted with smiles and hand shakes—and giggles by Mary, as only Tahitian girls can giggle. "Bebe" Moravia joins four other well-behaved children who care for each other for the next four hours.

Andre, Honore and William are cousins — half French, half Tahitian. Their girl friends and/or wives are vivacious Tahitian women—with waist-long, black hair and wearing red or blue pareus (sarongs) or interesting bikinis.

Flows like water

The party is already underway. Andre has returned from the store with ice cubes. Haig and Haig Scotch flows generously. William and I drink vin rouge, poured from a gallon wine bottle. The scotch isn't poured by the jigger—it's a glass at a time.

William goes out and cracks open four coconuts. Sitting on a funny rig, he grates the coconut meat. I grate, but soon decide it's hard work. Mary wraps the grated, damp coconut meat into a clean cloth and squeezes it. This bowl of coconut milk is put on the table. Everything is dipped into this milk.

How is your new electric barbecue? At this barbecue, they grilled the fish over an open fire outside—and it is delicious.

Inside the grass hut, a Coleman stove roars. Four kinds of fish are boiled in coconut oil. On the table are slices of breadfruit, taro, French bread, great piles of clams, raw fish marinated in coconut milk—all most tasty.

The raw fish in coconut doesn't sound good, but it is wonderful. We each have one dish, but fingers serve as utensils. Large green leaves are serving dishes. We eat and drink heartily of red wine.

Time for rod and reel

William and I walk over the coral into the water, where he fishes.

Note—Almost all the food was provided by nature. They fished and collected clams in the morning. They picked the breadfruit and bananas and papaya. Coffee beans were picked, roasted and ground. Yes, of course, the scotch, wine and French bread came from the Chinese store.

Andre brings out a .22 rifle and the fellows bang away at some coconuts high in the trees. Dick shoots down four.

"Do you want some coconut juice?" William asks. And before I could say "oui," he is chopping off the thick husks with a vicious, long machete. The liquid is delicious, more than a pint.

He chops one in half for Denise, a dark-eyed, 7-year-old beauty. He has four children in the family—two were his wife's before she was married and two are by him since marriage. Nothing unusual—this is a way of life in Tahiti. Sex is like food and drink. And everyone loves and wants children. The system seems to work well, except in isolated instances.

A little background

This Sunday party was not a typical native household.

Andre is probably rich by many standards. He and his friends speak French, English, Tahitian. He has traveled. He drives a Fiat sportscar and drinks only imported Dutch beer.

After lunch, Charlie drops by—driving a Thunderbird. Charlie is a wealthy half-American, half Tahitian. Then, several from the movie cast of "Mutiny on the Bounty" appear.

We then walk to Andre's land across the road — a beautiful, natural garden area—and swim in a cool pool, fed by an overhead waterfall.

Later we drive to Inchon's Bar-Resturant-Store to eat Chinese food and delightful fresh water shrimp. A guitar and Tahitian uke suddenly appear and the music starts.

And the Sunday party goes on and on and on . . .

IT'S SUNDAY PARTY TIME in Tahiti, so come join us in the comfortable grass hut, pictured at right. The kids and adults have a wonderful time. If you're still hungry, the kids will feed you coconut, fresh from the tree (picture at left).

Is It Fun or Misery?

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Summer can be a wonderful time, or it can be one long misery of heat, boredom and arguing children.

It's up to you, what your summer will be like. It can be the best you've ever spent, for we live in an area where everything for a good time is right at our fingertips.

This is not written for those who have horses, swimming pools, money for exotic trips, private camps or private lessons for their children.

IT IS WRITTEN for the young families whose budgets do not expand as rapidly as their needs, and for our older citizens living on retirement income.

For the senior citizens, there are libraries in each community. The new libaries are air conditioned, quiet and cool.

There are public swim pools, some with special hours after 6 p.m. for adults especially. No children permitted unless accompanied by an adult, which considerably lessens the crowd and the noise.

There are baseball games played in the cool of the evening. No, we don't mean trekking far afield in the traffic to a pro game, but our own boys' leagues and adult games. If you've never watched a little league game, you are missing the best in drama, comedy . . . and sports!

THERE IS theater available, too, close by at Lafayette Town Hall, where the Dramateurs will present two comedies. The first, Life with Father, opens tonight and runs four consecutive weekends.

There are our beautiful parks, perfect for a quiet picnic in a shady spot, or a stroll down a tree lined lane.

The possibilities are even greater for those with cars, for within an hour's driving time one can be beside a lake, atop a mountain, wandering through a museum, or admiring giant redwoods. These things mentioned cost very little, some of them nothing.

FOR OUR youngsters the activities are numerous: Swim, tennis, diving lessons; supervised play at school playgrounds that includes art, craft and games; the adventure of exploring new worlds through books; picnics at the beach, or hikes up Diablo.

Parents living in Pleasant Hill or Walnut Creek may call the recreation center of their community to learn how, when and where to register their children for some fun activity. Both communities have a complete program with something to suit every age and taste.

The Lafayette Youth Association and the Orinda Union School District Recreation program serve the youngsters in their areas.

So you have a bunch of little ones too tiny to take recreation swim lessons, or participate in playground activities . . . and they're driving you NUTS!

TRY WATER. No, we don't mean for drowning purposes. Water, it appears, has a very therapeutic effect on young children. Fill plastic or metal containers with water, provide some empty containers, turn the garden hose on to a slight trickle . . . and presto, most little ones will play happily, if wetly, for hours on lawn or patio.

If your toddlers are past the "eating the toys" stage, fingerpaints, modeling clay and crayons are good for cooler days. Summer requires a minimum of clothing and these somewhat messy activties can be carried on outside. Backyard picnics are fun, too, or "camping" with a tent formed by a blanket hung over a card table.

Does Your Child Know?

There are two sides to this problem of children in the street and automobiles.

One, of course, is that all drivers should be aware of youngsters playing in the street.

The other, and possibly of greater importance, belongs to the parents.

Children should be told not to play in the street.

Have you ever had the experience of driving along one of our lovely residential streets and coming across a group of children playing in the middle of the street?

AND THEN found, as you approched them, that they wouldn't move out of your way? Or if they did, leisurely — perhaps arrogantly—but certainly without any real appreciation of either the danger inherent in the situation or the common rights of both automobiles and pedestrians.

Remember the story that The Sun carried some time back about the youngster who rode his bike out of his own driveway into the path of an approaching automobile? He was seriously injured.

Whose fault was this? The driver will carry the memory with him all his life.

BUT THE youngster shouldn't have been doing what he was doing.

So, although all drivers must be careful of children playing in the street—especially now that school is out—the primary responsibility lies with us . . . the parents.

Have you told your child?

Lovely Brides, Handsome Grooms March Down the Aisle Together

THE FIRST Unitarian Church in Berkeley was the place for the wedding of Alice Crawford Blount and Carter Eaton Swart. They were married June 10 and are now living in Los Angeles. Photo by Don W. Jones.

Alice Blount Becomes Bride

Miss Alice Crawford Blount of Orinda became the bride of Carter Eaton Swart of Northridge, California, June 10.

The couple were wed by Dr. J. Raymond Cope in the First Unitarian Church in Berkeley at a 2 p.m. ceremony.

A reception followed in the Little Chapel of the church. Decorations consisted of lavender and white stock and carnations.

Alice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Prescott Blount of Orinda. Carter is the son of Mrs. C. Swart of Northridge.

Given in marriage by her father, Alice wore a white organza gown embroidered with alencon lace. An elbow length illusion veil was held by a stephanotis crown. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Her maid of honor was Miss Russlyn Cocking of Vancouver, B.C., Miss Ann Blount of Orinda and Miss Karen Swart of Northridge.

The bridesmaids wore orchid bouquets of white carnations and lavender asters.

Flower girl Vicki Paine of Orinda wore white organdy with a bouquet of baby white roses.

Best man to Carter was James Aldridge of Los Angeles. Ushers were Howard Malcolm Swart of Los Angeles and Robert Henderson of Salinas.

Alice attended the University of California at Davis and Diablo Valley College.

Valley Art-Exhibit-Party Staged at Rheem Estate

By MARIE MONAHAN

LIKE A HOLLYWOOD setting the scene of last Saturday's art exhibit benefit staged by Valley Art Center at the Rheem residence in Moraga.

Someone remarked that they honestly expected to see Loretta Young or Joan Crawford swish through the door of the very elegant poolhouse at any minute. For here in the Grecian classic garden at one end of the elongated pool was a most sumptuously decorated room from the bygone days of Hollywood when Pickfair and places of that kind set the tempo for lavish living.

HOWEVER anachronistic the classic lines of the estate's poolhouse setting with its surrounding high walls were a perfect foil for the choice artworks exhibited by well-known bay area artists . . . The theme of the party, "Compositions and Rhythmn," was carried out with jazz music played by Maurice Anger's music men at the poolhouse end.

ON ARRIVAL, eyecatching blue and green mobiles and starched string balls were gaily suspended from a huge oak. . . The Millard Simons making an early departure while most of the guests chose to arrive between 5:30 and 6:30 for the 3-7 party because of the high-soaring temperatures.

ON TICKET DUTY, shaded by a bright umbrella, was Irene Wilkinson, she and Bill taking the Frank Mansfields home for dinner later, also their guest, Caroline Smith Mitchell, a fine Berkeley potter, who has just recently moved to Lafayette.

INSPECTING the interior of the poolhouse where the bar was doing a brisk business were the Ken Renwicks of Orinda with the Johnson Clarks of Lafayette. Louise Clark, regal, and blonde in a green print strapless sundress, a matching stole draped over one shoulder. . . . The Fortney Starks, she in shocking pink print. . . Phil Angell sporting a madras plaid sportcoat. . . . Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher Taylor of Happy Valley. . . . Bernice Ellis introducing her guests.

UMBRELLA TABLES studding the clipped poolside lawn. . . . Champagne punch ladled from a gargantuan plastic punch bowl. . . . Bill Zion, Richard Funk, John Martsolf among Valley Art Center members doing bartending duties.

The Harry Fleddermans of Orinda making the art exhibit rounds . . . Claire and Charles Craig inspecting closer the beautiful "Madonna and Child" done in bronze. Jan Soubielle, wearing a zebra-striped pique with spaghetti straps, introducing the new Orinda Woman's Club president, Oma Stewart, and a past prexy of the group, Pat Campbell . . . Jan just recently finished her term as head of the club.

ANIMATED conversation for Ruth Howard, sporting orange sandals with a bare striped cotton . . . Chatting with Orindan Beatrice Krell, wife of Harry Krell (he's one of the exhibiting painters and a professor of fine arts), was Celeste Ford, who attended the party with her husband, Harry X. Ford, president of the California College of Arts and Crafts. . . . Many compliments for Celeste's handsome "cabana" knit, one of her own design in wide bands of orange, yellow and royal blue on white, . . . A fetching knit orange bandeau to match on her short, dark coif.

Chairman Elenoir Funk busy with introductions . . . Rei Westlye of Lafayette whose wife, Evelyn, is chairman of the Women's Board, she wearing a wide-brimmed white picture hat. . . . The Arthur Wagstaffs of Walnut Creek and Barbara Butzback of Walnut Creek, who was instrumental in gathering the artworks together.

PLAYING IT COOL, the Tom Muellers of Orinda with Lawrence and Dee Costa of Orinda. . . . Lots of smiles directed at "The Balancer," a clown figure made from magnasite and standing hands-down on the tip of the diving board. . . . Exhibition chairman Shirley Boothe of Lafayette chatting with the artists.

HARVEY, Mr. Rheem's right-hand man for over thirty years, remarking that this is probably the end of the party period for the estate that has been bought by the Christian Brothers. If you've never seen it, you missed something 'cause you just can't get that kind no more!

Sidney A. Ames Will Marry In Southland

Announced recently was the engagement of Patricia Ann Perkins and Sidney Allen Ames.

Sidney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fisk Ames of Walnut Creek. He resides in Fair Oaks, California.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Paul Perkins of Orangevale, California. She resides with her parents.

A graduate of Acalanes High School, Sidney attended California State Polytechnic College in Southern California and served four years in the Air Force.

Both Patricia and the future bridegroom are currently employed at Aerojet General Corp. in the southland.

Patricia is a graduate of El Camino High School, Sacramento.

Ames has a brother, William Allen Ames. His fiancee has a brother, Paul and a sister, Vici.

The couple will be married early in September at a double ring ceremony at St. John's Catholic Church in Folsom, California.

John Caldwell, Lynn Henrietta Exchange Vows

The day after her graduation June 10 from the University of California at Berkeley, Lynn Henrietta exchanged marriage vows with John Caldwell in Berkeley.

John is the son of Mrs. Mary Caldwell of Lafayette.

The marriage was performed in the Chapel of the Great Commission with Rev. Carl Thomas officiating.

Daughter of the John Gordon Henriettas of Lafayette, Lynn selected a floor-length gown of white silk organza with appliques of imported Guiseppi lace.

Features of the dress were a picture neckline, fitted bodice with white cummerbund of taffeta with obi sash, bouffant skirt with matching applique scattered on one side.

The headpiece was constructed of imported French organza caught with silk illusion with an elbow-length veil. The bouquet was of white daisies and marguerites.

Attending the bride were Cathy Miller as maid of honor and bridesmaids Joan Evans Carlson, Marilyn Engelhard, Lani Seneker, Sheelah Fox and Kyla Houston.

They were dressed in sheath street-length gowns of silk linen shantung in pale yellow.

Best man to the groom was Bill Freeman, a fraternity brother. Ushers were Mike White, Aron Thomas, Wayne Hollister, Robert Dewell and Robert Carlson.

Ringbearer was Patrick Santos.

A reception followed the 2:30 p.m. ceremony in the garden of the bride's parents' home.

Greeting guests, Mrs. Henrietta was dressed in hyacinth blue silk shantung. Mrs. Caldwell was gowned in beige embroidered silk.

After the reception for some 200 guests, the newlyweds departed for a honeymoon trip along the Northern California coast.

Both Lynn and John graduated from Acalanes High School. John attended Oregon State University where he affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta. He was a noted football player while at the state university.

Lynn, a member of Alphi Phi, was Football Hostess Queen.

Miss Hermann Gives Wedding Shower

A surprise wedding shower in white and gold decor was given for Barbara Piazza of Lafayette by Raylene Hermann, also of Lafayette, Tuesday.

Both girls are students at San Jose State College and belong to Delta Gamma sorority.

Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis DeVincenzi of Lafayette, plans a September 2 wedding.

The future bridegroom is Richard Markstein, son of the Adolph Marksteins of Lafayette.

Circus Aids Health

The space-age has invaded the big top!

New heights in the spectacular "science" of aerial-dynamics will be reached by the gravity-defying astro-artists of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay-Polack Bros. Circus July 7-9.

And, Oakland Auditorium Arena ring-siders from Contra Costa County who will thrill to 20 circus-history-making acts will be helping "grounded" youngsters make speedy trips back to health.

Last year, 6983 bed patients, of whom 1168 were on a part-pay basis, were cared for at Children's Hosuital of the East Bay.

Of the total number of bed patients, 144 were from Lafayette, 144 from Orinda and 201 were from Walnut Creek.

In addition, 32,937 outpatient-clinic services were rendered at the hospital during 1960, 31,-361 of which were part-pay. Lafayette children received 44 outpatient services; Orinda youngsters, 6; and Walnut Creek offspring, 150.

Funds for the part-pay program at Children's Hospital of the East Bay are earned by the 3500 women of the hospital's auxiliary branches. This is the fourth year that the branches have sponsored the circus to assist children from families which can't afford the full cost of medical and hospital care. All proceeds, above basic circus expenses, will benefit the part-pay program.

In addition to daring aerial acts, this year's circus "capsule" will be sparked by breath-taking acrobatic, juggling and animal feats. And, on the lighter side, there'll be a bevy of balmy buffoons.

Count-down times for the gigantic Children's Hospital of the East Bay-Polack Bros. Circus are: 2:30 p.m. and 8:15 p.m., July 7; 10 a.m., 2:30 p.m. and 8:15 p.m., July 8; and 1:15 p.m. and 4:30 p.m., July 9.

Passports to all high-powered performances can be purchased from branch members of Children's Hospital of the East Bay or from the Office of the Branches, 731 52nd Street, Oakland, OLympic 2-9202.

After June 26 reserved-seat tickets will be available at the hospital circus box office at 1752 Broadway, Oakland, TWinoaks 3-2341.

"HEY—it's a real one!" And seven-month-old Amy Cummings isn't about to let the poodle held by sister Ruthie, three years, wiggle through her fingers. Also among the poodle fanciers are five-year-old Julie (far left) and the girls' mother, Mrs. Fred Cummings of Orinda and Heather Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay. There'll be real-live poodles—oodles of them, in fact—at the Children's Hospital of the East Bay-Polack Bros. Circus, too. The canine performers will be among the circus headliners playing the Oakland Auditorium Arena July 7-9.

Yosemite Guild Completes Hawaiian Luau Plans

Plans are nearly completed for a Hawaiian Luau to be given by Yosemite Guild of the John Muir Memorial Hospital July 15.

Arrangements for the luau were discussed at a guild meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. Robert Klitgaard, Lafayette.

Mrs. William Palmer is general chairman of the event to be held in the gardens of the Lafayette residence of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mattei.

The following members will serve on Mrs. Palmer's committee: decorations, Mrs. Lloyd West; refreshments, Mrs. Don Campbell and Mrs. G. C. Engelman; entertainment, Mrs. Lyall Bishop; set-up, Mrs. Neal Campbell and publicity, Mrs. Horace Firth.

Members and their guests will enjoy cocktails and a dinner, served luau style. They will dance to the music of the "Hawaiian Starlighters" and, in addition, will be entertained by Tiara, a young Tahitian dancer.

Decor will be in keeping with the Hawaiian theme. Tapa cloth will cover the tables, and tiki torches will provide "native" light.

This is Yosemite's second and largest fund raising event of the year. In May a dessert bridge was held at members' homes with Mrs. Jack Hohenberger of Walnut Creek serving as chairman. She was assisted by Mrs. Rowland Stade of Concord and Mrs. Fred Conover also of Walnut Creek.

Profits from these parties go directly to the John Muir Memorial Hospital.

Barbara Piazza Plans Autumn Nuptial Rites

A September 2 wedding is planned for Barbara Marie Piazza and Richard Albert Markstein.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis DeVincenzi of Acalanes Road, Lafayette.

Richard is the son of the Adolph Marksteins of Arrowhead Drive, Lafayette.

Both attend San Jose State College. Richard is affiliated with Delta Upsilon and Barbara belongs to Delta Gamma. She is a Junior Panhellenic representative.

Another Sid's prize is a self-winding, Lord Elgin.

'Country Fair' Underway At Sid's, Simon's W.C.

Sid's and Simon's annual, old-fashioned Country Fair began Wednesday for three bargain-filled weeks, store officials announced.

Besides the special values to be found on merchandise at the two stores, many added attractions are being offered to local residents who visit the stores, according to Sid Wallace, owner of Sid's stores, and Fred Janes, manager of Simons-Walnut Creek.

BOTH STORES will feature blue ribbon merchandise during the three weeks. This indicates the best quality in each department, store officials say.

There will be daily drawings or contests for prizes at both stores. No purchase is necessary.

Sid's will have daily drawings on hams and other merchandise. Simon's will give away top prizes in its various departments.

Three grand prizes will also be awarded during the Country Fair.

A dishwasher, television couch, a set of tires and many other big prizes will be given away at three separate drawings, according to Janes.

Sid's is open from 7 a.m. until midnight every day.

Simon's is open from noon until 9:30 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Saturday and Sunday the store is open from 9:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m.

At Simon's there will be two special contests for boys and girls —from 5 to 8 years of age and another from 9 to 13.

THE YOUNGSTERS can enter a special guessing contest where they guess how many sinkers there are in a tackle box.

The boy or girl making the best guess in the 5-to-8-year-old age group will receive a box of toys. A bicycle is first prize in the 9 to 13 contest.

The contest ends July 14 at 1 p.m. Winners will be named at 4 p.m.

Free balloons and candy will be given to the youngsters visiting either store.

Sid's will also give away cotton candy.

EACH weekend, free hay rides will be available to the younger set.

The Buckeye Ranch will have the wagon and a team of horses each Friday at 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturdays and Sundays from 2 until 4.

Also, the Paws and Taws, famous square dance group from Danville, will perform at the two stores each Friday night.

Simple Simon, the clown, will be on hand daily at Simon's.

Residents Get Service Awards

Vern Kaufman of Lafayette and Jackson Miers of Pleasant Hill have each received an award for 20 years service with the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

They are now employed at the Department's Western Regional Research Laboratory in Albany.

Uterine Cancer Campaign Begins On Local Level

The American Cancer Society has announced the launching of a "Conquer Uterine Cancer" program in cooperation with the General Federation of Women's Clubs, according to Dr. Jonas Schreider of Walnut Creek, president-elect of the Contra Costa Branch.

The program, Dr. Schreider said, will be carried out nationally in cooperation with women's clubs in each community.

At present 14 thousand women die each year in the United States from uterine cancer. "Most of these deaths," Dr. Schreider said, "are unnecessary. They occur when diagnosis and treatment are too late."

Primary objective of this life-saving program, he said, "will be to get every participating club woman in Contra Costa communities to have a health checkup and a uterine cell examination as the first step toward a lifelong habit of annual health examinations as a safeguard against cancer."

Other women's organizations which would like to participate in the program may contact Mrs. John S. Selley of Walnut Creek, education chairman in Contra Costa, at the society's headquarters at 2030 N. Main Street, Walnut Creek.

River Pollution Killing Many Fish at the Present

By LARRY JACKSON

There is pollution in the river as well as the Delta area.

Just when the weather and the anglers were beginning to cooperate for a good season's fishing, along comes the curse of add fishing activity—POLLUTION.

Just a word of warning to you angler guys and gals, if you have taken a striper in the Delta area or up-stream as far as Antioch that acted like it need air and had surfaced and run in circles, or even a salmon or sturgeon—WARNING—do not eat it.

There is a good chance that you will not be harmed, but why try to buck the odds. Any fish in this poisoned conditioned can be harmful if eaten so just dispose of it and play it safe.

AT WHITE'S Fishing Resort this Monday morning, we were told of several stripers seen around the pier acting strangely and finally one came close enough to net. It was barely alive and was rushed to the Biological Department of the Fish and Game for examination. For the department boys to make a correct diagnosis the fish must be either alive or just freshly dead. At this writing no word has been received by your scribe as to what condition or amount of poison was found in this specimen.

During the week at White's several fine fish have been bagged with Harry Kramer of S.F. boating off the pier taking a fine healthy sturgeon 56 inches and running 46½ pounds; Eddie Lockhart fishing from the wharf landed a fine 16 pound striper and Andy Miilu another of the addicts of the area boated a limit with his top fish going 10½ pounds.

The fishing fraternity was out in full force over Saturday and Sunday with several keepers taken as well as plenty of flounder in the 3-5 pound class.

THROUGH the week, however, Dal Hering at the landing noticed many keeper and smaller stripers dead in the river and reported to the department boys. Del finally got a live one in the net that had surfaed for air and the boys have taken up the investigation from there.

The pier extension of 72 feet will be completed shortly. While we were there the finishing touches were put on the piling and stringers and the planking had been started. Next Sunday should see this new extension in operation. We hope the pollution problem has been cleared up by then as well.

As we drove up to McAvoy's harbor we noticed several fish belly up in the sloughs near Swantons Landing. We got out and noticed that they were stripers in the non-keeper class.

When we got to McAvoy's all we heard was the talk of poisoned fish in the area. Boats Sunday from the Suisun area and Honker Bay reported seeing hundreds of the fishing floating belly up in the current, some going to an estimated 20-25 pounds.

THE ANDERSON family, boat addicts out of this port, reported seeing several salmon on the top of the water fighting for air ond they tried to get close enough to net one of them, with success. They said the fish acted like they were suffering and kept swimming in circles trying to get air. This is highly unusual for the salmon at this time and certainly denotes a condition of unhealthy water.

Hal Wildes at the landing reported to the department and a test was made of the water showing an over abundance of ACID. Boaters from this port reported dead fish as far up stream as the pulp mills at Antioch. Other reports shower them even as far into the Bay area as the Petaluma entrance.

We contacted the department boys and learned that at this writing they were unable to pinpoint the cause, but they had a full force of men working on the problem.

FISHING at Dowrelio's had been very good up to the weekend when the water conditions raised havoc with the sport. We had a report that a better than five foot sturgeon was taken from the water ——dear—just off the harbor entrance. Dowrelio's boats during the week had many nice limits of fish taken on the afternoon craft, but it slowed over the weekend.

We certainly intend keeping on the ball on this case and will work with the department boys. We only hope that when the culprit is identified that the case will come up before a strong judge who is a sportsman. A cheap $200 to $500 fine will not suffice judge. When the case is proven—throw the book at them—make them squirm or fight for air as the fish had to do.

Looking a the brighter side, Johnny Isabella one of our better liquor dispensors, and family spent the Sunday at Brannan State Park fishing the sloughs for the "cats." Several limits and all nice size.

A FRIEND of ours over Lafayette way has long been talking about his private special stream in the Yolla Bolla Quadrant. Seems he mouthed too much. About a dozen o fhis friends showed up with limits of 12-14 inch native trout taken from his fishing hole.

El Sobrante blasted out 14 hits off Doug Sizemore and Al Oxley of Walnut Creek in scoring an easy win at Las Lomas Sunday

The winners scored 10 times before Walnut Creek picked up its first tally in the fifth inning.

Bill Howerton, Mickey Sytowski and Nick Lujan each had two hits for the locals.

Sam Thomas hurled a seven-hitter for Walnut Creek in the win over Orinda Saturday. He also collected three of his team's 10 hits. Thomas struck out five and walked 12, but managed to go the distance.

Howerton and Lujan each had two hits for the winners.

PETE SCHNEIDER and Steve Kosach each had two hits for Orinda.

Walnut Creek took an early 1-0 lead on a hit batsman and singles by Oxley and Howerton.

Orinda, however, surged into the lead at the end of seven innings.

Bobby Williams singled, advanced to third on two wild pitches, then stole home to tie the game for Orinda in the second.

Three straight singles by Randy Thaman, Kosach and Dave deVarona put Orinda ahead in the sixth. Another run in the seventh made it 3-1. John Paul Jones couldn't hold it.

A five-run outburst in the top of the eighth chased Jones.

THE RALLY featured hits by Howerton, Lujan and a two-run triple by Thomas.

Sunday, Orinda led North Richmond, 11-9, going into the bottom of the ninth, but couldn't hold the advantage

Three walks, an error and two singles spelled defeat for the locals.

Brad Peter collected three of Orinda's 13 hits and drove in three runs.

Schneider had a two-run homer for Orinda in the seventh inning.

SF Giant Rookies Beat S&C, 11-2

By HEC HANCOCK

The highly regarded Rookie baseball team, sponsored by the San Francisco Giants, came to town last Sunday and lived up to its advance notices as they pounded out an 11-2 win over Sports & Games, Inc., of Walnut Creek in a game played at Civic Field.

This Sunday at 11 a.m. at Civic Field the local team opens play in a new league.

Held pretty much in check for six innings by Sports & Games hurler Bob Lang, the Giants broke the game wide open with a big six-run seventh inning.

A three-run homer to right field by Roy Reitz highlighted the frame that saw 12 men come to bat.

Bill Gallagher with 2 for 4 and Mike Jaramillo with a 3 for 4 led the Rookie hitting.

The Giants played air-tight defensive ball, and in all collected 11 hits in registering the win.

Steve Laird got the pitching win for the Rooks.

BOB LANG, making his first start on the mound for Sports & Games, was effective through the first six innings.

Serving up a variety of curves and junk, he wasn't hit hard until the fatal seventh.

To add to his performance on the hill, he picked up two hits, one a home run.

The other run for the local team came when Bob Morris scored from third on a single by Tom Strain in the seventh.

In all, the locals collected only four hits and two were bunt singles. Lang beat out one bunt and Tom Alamano the other.

Mrs. T. S. Beem Wins Tourney

Mrs. T. S. Beem was the class A winner in the shortest four, longest five Diablo Women's Golf Group tourney last Thursday.

She shot a 49-10½-38½.

Close behind was Mrs. P. D. Fulmer with a 48-9-39, only one-half stroke off the pace.

In class B there was a tie between Mrs. A. W. Mohr (52-12-40) and Mrs. Mark Hull (53-12½-40).

Two Local Teams Play Tomorrow in San Rafael

Pleasant Hill and Walnut Creek open the State National Baseball Congress State Tournament tomorrow at San Rafael.

Pleasant Hill will face Melody Ramblers of Richmond at 2 p.m. The Walnut Creek Merchants play at 8 p.m. against the Ongaro Plumbers of San Anselmo.

All games in the state tourney will be played at Albert Field in San Rafael. The field is located on B Street.

The state tourney has been divided into two sections with 10 teams competing in the first half and 15 teams in the second half.

The two section winners then face each other in a best two of three series to decide a state NBC champion.

The winner of the double-elimination tournament receives $1000 and the right to represent California in the National NBC Tournament held in August in Wichita.

The national champ collects $10,000.

Both local teams settled for runner-up honors in the local NBC divisional tournaments that concluded last Sunday.

Walnut Creek was outslugged by the 88-cent Stores of Oakland for the second time, 14-10, at Civic Field in Walnut Creek.

Pleasant Hill lost to the San Francisco Longshoremen, 5-1, at Diablo Valley College. It was Pleasant Hill's second loss to the Longshoremen, also.

The two local teams finished divisional play with 2-2 records.

They were faced with winning doubleheaders last Sunday in order to win their respective tourneys, but neither team got by the first game.

The Merchant team is probably quite happy that the Oakland team is seeded in the second section of the state tourney.

The visiors scored 26 runs and 29 hits in the two games. They also blasted six home runs in the two meetings, four last Sunday.

The Merchants jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the first, but the 88-cent Stores scored four in the top of the second. The Merchants never saw the lead again.

Benefitting by some shoddy infield play on the part of the Oakland team, the Merchants twice came within one run of their opponents, 4-3 in the second and 8-7 in the sixth inning.

They also cut the margin to 11-9 at the end of seven innings.

EACH TIME, however, the Oaklanders pulled away with the long ball. In the third, Carl Gordon banged out a three-run homer and in the seventh Rich Littlejohn did the same. In the eighth, Leamon Brown hit a two-run homer.

First baseman George Colburn hit the only home run of the day for the Merchants. It was a solo blast over the left field fence in the fifth inning.

At Diablo Valley College, the Longshoremen came up with five runs in the eighth to eliminate Pleasant Hill.

Pleasant Hill had grabbed a 1-0 lead in the fifth inning on a single by catcher Dan Barni, a walk to pitcher Ben Reniker, a single by Paul Chaplik and a run-scoring ground ball by Hal Sheppard.

RENIKER held the San Francisco team in check until the eighth when he gave up three hits and two walks.

Reniker struck out eight and walked four in the game. He gave up nine hits.

Roses Need Feeding After Their First Bloom

Feed your roses right after they lose their first bloom! This is the advice of E. L. Thomas of Vigoro research laboratories.

"With a burning sun in the sky it is time to replenish nutrients used up by your rose plants in their vigorous spring growth. The importance of a post-blooming feeding, using a good rose food, cannot be over-emphasized," Thomas says.

This is especially true if spring feeding was neglected, he says. Roses, unlike many common flowering shrubs, do not have the ability nor capacity for storing a reservoir of nutrients. Whereas forsythia, vibernum and spirea do build up a reserve, roses cannot, and an application of rose food right now is most beneficial.

A ROSE FOOD which comes in convenient carton size container has been found by many home rose gardeners to be a great time saver. A cupful, approximately two closed handfuls, is ample nourishment for the average rose plant. A boxful will cover 100 square feet—a rose bed four feet by 25 feet.

"Work the formulation lightly into the top two inches of soil," says Thomas.

Apply in a circular area starting about six inches from the base of the stalks.

"Where a mulch has been used, it may be advisable to double the recommended feedings," says Thomas.

"This is true if corn cobs or buckwheat hulls have been used. It is not necessary if the mulch used was peat moss or vermiculite."

SOUTH OF the Mason-Dixon line rose gardeners are advised to give their rose plantings a third feeding early in September.

Even more frequent applications are desirable in California and sub-tropical Florida. One cupful per plant every two months all season is the recommended rate in California. Florida's rose lovers know their plants must be fed even more frequently. For best results they feed smaller quantities at three-week intervals all year round.

Vigoro rose food, from a recently developed formulation, is readily identifiable by its rose scented, rose-colored granules.

Few Spaces Left in Y Day Camp

Both the first and third sessions of YMCA Day Camp are completely filled, proving the popularity of this summer attraction for young people.

The only session which still has openings is the second session from June 26 to July 7 at Little Hills Ranch out of Danville.

The day camp operates Monday through Friday and is for boys and girls from 6 to 12. The young campers are picked up at one of the schools in their community and transported to and from the camp itself.

Daily activities include swimming, instruction as recreational, crafts, hiking, recreational games, story hour and rest period.

Special trips, carnivals, treasure hunts and other side events make the experience a colorful introduction to camping out of doors. Campers provide their own lunch, with insurance, milk and program supplies being furnished by the camp.

Reservations may be made by phoning the Y office at YE 4-9070.

Search Is On; Queen Wanted For Glamor Job

The annual search is on for the local beauty who will reign over the Walnut Festival in September!

Young ladies endowed with beauty, poise and charm, from 17 to 24 years of age, whose heart's desire is to be Queen of the Walnut Festival, are urged to lose no time in applying for Walnut Creek's most glamorous job.

ENTRANTS are expected from all parts of Central Contra Costa County, according to Bill McLaughlin, contest chairman. However, a candidate will not be accepted if she is entered in another queen contest in the county at the same time, he said.

Winner of the contest will receive an air trip to Hawaii, a queen's crown, a color portrait, a large trophy and the adulation of thousands of loyal Walnut Festival subjects.

She will be crowned at a gala ceremony September 22, and ride with her attendants atop a float in the honor spot in the Walnut Festival Sunday parade.

DURING the contest, which begins officially July 5, candidates will be feted at civic luncheons, appear on radio and possibly television, and be expected to participate in many public events, according to McLaughlin.

Assisting McLaughlin on the contest committee are Ted Gurney, Robert I. Schroder and Dave Thomas.

Contest rules and entry blanks may be obtained from Ted Gurney, photographer, 1602 Locust Street; Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce, 1359 Locust Street and the First Savings & Loan, 1401 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Church Women Commend Board of Supervisors

The executive board of the United Church Women of Central Contra Costa County at its May meeting commended the board of supervisors of Contra Costa County for their recent grant of $4000 to the county healty department.

This grant is to provide medical and nursing service to migrants.

THE MIGRANTS have been a concern of the United Church Women both locally and statewide, according to Mrs. Robert S. Love, Lafayette, president of the local church women.

Mrs. Love states local church women have been providing layettes through the health department to the migrants in the Brentwood area for the past five years. This program for the migrants in this area has as its chairman, Mrs. John Ahman, Walnut Creek.

THROUGH the United Church Women of Northern California-Northern Nevada scholarships are provided for qualified college age students who spend the summer working in migrant camps throughout the state teaching them many of the things we take for granted. These include health and safety, recreation, reading. Scholarships are in the amount of $250 each.

Plans are now underway for a fellowship tea to be held in St. Michael's and All Angel's Episcopal Church, Concord, October 6, with the proceeds going to this scholarship fund.

THE COMMITTEE planning the tea under the direction of Mrs. B. P. James, Lafayette, chairman, Christian World Missions Department, are Mrs. John Ahman, Walnut Creek, program. Mrs. F. A. # Welfare Board Is Usurper, Says Nejedly

District attorney John A. Nejedly, district attorney of Contra County, has pointed to what he believes is another instance in which the California State Social Welfare Board is attempting to "usurp" the authority of the state judiciary.

In this case it is openly advising that county welfare departments ignore court orders, he said.

A circular letter from the Department of Social Welfare has indicated that the State Social Welfare Board made a motion that the welfare departments should proceed to grant aid even when there is a conflict with a court order.

The letter further suggested that "In the unlikely event a county employee is threatened or actually charged with contempt of court as the result of such a situation, the department, through the administrative adviser or the attorney general, would provide consultation, advice and perhaps even participation in the case as a friend of the court."

Nejedly said, "This is another example of the autocratic methods being utilized by the welfare board in attempting to build an empire unassailable by the courts.

"It is obvious that some legislation must be introduced to curtail the activities of the social welfare board before the citizens of this state find themselves unable to protect their tax dollars against the uncontrolled usurpation of power now being utilized by this group," Nejedly said.

Fire Department Warns Against Use of Fireworks

Fire departments throughout Contra Costa County face a serious fire hazard caused by the extremely dry weather condition.

All residents are reminded of the laws of this county regarding FIREWORKS. The following ordinance is in effect in Contra Costa County:

"NO PERSON or persons, firm, company, corporation or association shall sell or offer to sell, or have in his or its possession or custody, any dangerous or 'safe and sane' fireworks as defined by state law, except toy pistols as defined in Section 12500 of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California."

LET'S ALL CO-OPERATE IN KEEPING CONTRA COSTA COUNTY SAFE FROM FIRE, said the Contra Costa County Fire Prevention Inspectors' Association.

D. H. Knudsen Is Elected Leader Of Corporation

Duncan H. Knudsen, 3825 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, has been elected president of Putnam, Knudsen & Weaver, Inc., insurance brokerage and life and group insurance consultant firm, formed July 1 by the consolidation of Putnam & Weaver and Duncan H. Knudsen Co.

Well known in Contra Costa civic activities, Knudsen is president of the Mount Diablo Council, Boy Scouts of America. He is also moderator of a series of weekly radio programs involving health, youth and welfare agencies in Contra Costa County.

IN ADDITION, he was the founding president of the Contra Costa United Fund.

Other Contra Costa residents in the new Oakland-based firm are Donald B. Putnam, 6 Snowberry Lane, Orinda, secretary; G. E. Nichols, 337 Maureen Lane, Pleasant Hill, treasurer; and David Eichar, 348 Belva Lane, Pleasant Hill, manager of the life and group department.

County Accepting Applicants for Deputy DA Job

An examination to fill two vacancies in the Contra Costa County District Attorney's Office has recently been announced by the civil service commission.

The positions, Deputy District Attorney Grade I, offer unlimited opportunity for trial practice, a complete cross section of criminal and civil cases and direct participation in the investigation of crimes with police agencies.

These jobs pay from $584 to $710 per month.

Minimum standards for these positions include graduation from a law school of recognized standing and active membership in the California State Bar.

Those interested in filing for these vacancies must submit applications no later than June 30, to Contra Costa County Civil Service Department, P.O. Box 710, Martinez, California.

Further information may be obtained by calling ACademy 8-3000, Ext. 415.

Jury Praises Newspapers

The Contra Costa Grand Jury has praised local newspapers for their fair and factual coverage of Contra Costa County law enforcement activities during the past year.

"The free press is a powerful medium to keep citizens informed," the jury's law enforcement committee noted.

"Public officials are sensitive to its influence. And no public official welcomes an unfavorable image of his activities.

"Misdeeds, graft, disputes, scandals—all have news merit. Good news, or bad news, is hard to suppress.

"This committee feels that the spectre of widespread publicity is one of the greatest aids to assure integrity and to deter misconduct by public officials," the committee said.

Faded Blooms Need Pruning

Prune off faded blooms on roses, fuchsias, potted geraniums before they go to seed.

Feed potted tuberous begonias with liquid fish every two weeks. Once a month is enough for those planted in the ground.

If feeding with an acid food fails to green up camellias and azaleas, use an iron chelate.

Plant cushion chrysanthemums for a summer-long show of color.

Take hanging baskets down and let them soak under a sprinkler or in a tub of water every now and then

Jury Suggests Local Control Welfare Program

The Contra Costa County Grand Jury has suggested the County Taxpayers' Association make a survey of the cost to the taxpayers if the county withdrew from the Federal and State plans for Social Welfare and ANC assistance and initiated a Contra Costa County plan with a complete local control.

In a letter to L. E. Carbert, president of the association, Douglas Beasley, grand jury foreman, stated the jury feels it is quite possible that a return to county control of the welfare programs to local authorities would be beneficial, both socially and financially for all concerned.

Beasley suggested the survey should include: Consideration of all present and proposed new regulations. Present costs and estimated costs of county plan, indicating expected increase in tax rate for the first and subsequent years.

Social effects such as in or out migration of welfare families to or from the county; beneficial or harmful effect to the county

Mrs. Eslinger Elected Leader Of Church Group

Mrs. Chester O. Eslinger of 1344 Reliez Valley Road, Lafayette, a member of the Lafayette Christian Church, has been elected state president of the Christian Women's Fellowship.

Mrs. Eslinger was born in Minnesota and lived most of her early life in Twin Falls, Idaho.

She attended the school of nursing at the Salt Lake General Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah.

IN 1938, she was married to Chester O. Eslinger, then a medical student at the Colorado General Hospital. For the following two years, she worked at the hospital, while he finished his studies at the medical school.

Dr. Eslinger received an appointment to the United States Indian Service, and the young couple spent the next five years on the Papago Reservation in Southern Arizona. Here they had unusual and interesting experiences, resulting from the competition between modern medical science and the tribal medicine man.

They were transferred to Nevada in 1945, and after six months with the Washoes, Piutes and Shoshones, they moved to Oakland where Dr. Eslinger entered private medical practice.

THEY LIVED in Oakland until 1957, when they moved to their present home in Lafayette.

While in Oakland, Mrs. Eslinger was an elder of the First Christian Church of Oakland. She was also president of the Oakland Christian Women's Fellowship.

She is now an elder of the Lafayette Christian Church and served as president of the Lafayette Christian Women's Fellowship last year.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS in which she has participated include the Women's Auxiliary to the Alameda Medical Association, the Children's Home Society, the American Field Service, the Parent Teachers' Association, Acalanes Parents' Club, Den Mother for Cub Scouts for two years and the State Board of the Christian Women's Fellowship of Northern California and Western Nevada for four years.

The Eslingers have two sons: Richard, who graduated from Acalanes High School this year, and Larry, who will be a sophomore next year.

During the past year, Jerry Iha, a native of Okinawa, has been living with the Eslingers while attending San Francisco State College. The Eslingers also entertain students from other countries in their home from time to time.

Berkeley Lodge Visits Acalanes Masonic Temple

The officers and members of Thousand Oaks Masonic Lodge No. 478. Berkeley, will visit Acalanes Masonic Lodge No. 723, Lafayette, June 27 at the Masonic Temple on Moraga Road.

The officers of the Berkeley lodge will confer the third degree of Masonry on a candidate of the Lafayette lodge.

The two lodges have exchanged visits since 1954. The Thousand Oaks Lodge actively assisted the Lafayette lodge in its formatioin. Many of the Acalanes Lodge members previously were members of the Thousand Oaks lodge.

John E. Kennett, master, Acalanes Masonic Lodge, extends an invitation to Masons to attend the visitation of the Berkeley lodge.

Many Garden Lane Residents Visit

Visits were in vogue as several Valley View Estates residents were either entertaining or traveling.

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Rutters of Garden Lane just returned from a cool two-week motor trip to Billings, Montana.

During the 107-degree heat here, Rutters were driving through snow drifts which were higher than their car.

The Howard Wallaces, also of Garden Lane, have returned from Yosemite and Calistoga.

A third Garden Lane resident, Mrs. Larry Tinker, has her mother, Mrs. Mac Dougle of Salinas, visiting with her for several weeks.

Reservists Hear Aerojet Speaker

Reservists of the 9441st Air Reserve Squadron, Walnut Creek, were both informed and entertained by two different speakers at the collateral meeting of June 8 at the squadron headquarters.

The first half of the program was handled by Clark Blagg, Walnut Creek, a representative of CIBA Pharmaceuticals in the Berkeley-Contra Costa area.

Blagg, with the aid of slides, discussed the research and development of modern day drugs and pharmaceuticals, and the efforts being made to meet the demand for products to combat disease more effectively and comfortably.

The program was then turned over to Charles Rice of Alamo, a representative of the San Ramon Division of Aerojet General.

Rice presented a film about the various phases of Aerojet and their operations throughout the nation from San Ramon, Sacramento and Azusa in California to Fredrick, Maryland.

After the film, he opened the meeting to a question and answer session concerning the local operation.

Memories Linger On for Miramonte's Senior Class

By SUSAN COX and CAROL PEDERSEN

Now that graduation is over the Senior class of Miramonte High, 1961, the writers of this column would like to conclude with a brief summarization of the latest Senior activities, and report on some of the future college and summer plans.

The traditional Senior Class Banquet was held May 29 at Miramonte. Barb Syverud headed the Senior Banquet committee and organized many of the classmen to work togeqther on such projects as "tree totting", "burra finding" and "musical jangles."

Diane Kersten was in charge of decorations and "theme finding", which was planned by Larie Axelson. Yummy and delicious food was planned by Sally Cary.

PROGNOSTICATIONS of the Senior class were given by Rich Babcock, Dick Stark and Rick Bagley. Also the singing group "What Four" being: Walt Altorfer, Rich Babcock, Ted Brock and John Rinne aided the Senior class in singing "January to December We'll Have Moments to Remember." Surely this event was a moment to remember.

One of the most important dates for the Senior class to remember was June 3, Senior Ball—Noctos Romanos—music by Ben Meltzer. We shall remember those days of complete rush of last minute things to do before the big night. Study halls turned into assembly lines where students were painting black and white squares for the entry hall of the gym, and not far away were girls turning crepe paper into beautiful flowers of red, pink, blue and purple.

DINNER PARTIES prior to Noctos Romanos were held at the homes of Jan Miller and Diana Hotchkiss. Many "Students" dined at such restaurants as Zombie Village, Trader Vics, Fishermans Grotto # 9, and many other places of eating pleasure.

Miramonte's gym is quite hard to disguise but we all thought that the decorations for the Ball were excellent. Many worked hard in arranging backdrops and pillar placing, all directed by Tina Cole. Head of publicity was Joyce Bailey; Sue Kronke did the bids; refreshments by Lynn Bickerstaff and clean-up by Jack Gilbert.

MANY SENIORS from Miramonte and the surrounding high schools attended Facks #2 in S.F. for 2:30 breakfast and entertainment by the great Earl Grant. Also visited was the Tonga Room with its tropical splendor and thunder and rain falling. Some gathered at Dick Stark's for breakfast and made plans for the next day's fun at San Gregorie.

Under classmen of the Bobbies (Mt. Diablo Therapy Center) planned a dinner for the graduating girls of the club, June 10. After all the delicious food was consumed the girls and their dates gathered at Sherry Romers for dancing .

Baccalaureate June 11—Father Calavan spoke about the future of Miramonte's graduating clss. He wished the class good luck and good fortune in what ever we may do in the coming years. Also he stressed that the life ahead should not be looked at through rose colored glasses.

FINALLY the great day of graduation June 15! Girls dressed in their white robes and the boys in green robes marched proudly to the stage where they could be seen by parents and close friends.

The weather that day was a bit warm but none will forget that long awaited day after four years and finals. Many honors were given to some of the students. Our classmates will travel far and wide but we will forever remain the 1961 class of Miramonte High School.

Following graduation the Senior All Night began. The theme was Daisies of the Summertime. The bids had a quote inscribed inside by Anita Owen. It went like this, "Sweet bunch of daisies brought from the dell, kiss me once darling, daisies don't tell." We danced to the music of Del Courtney and his orchestra and were entertained by the voices of the King Sisters.

Also our "What Four" sang and so did Nell Neighbor. Breakfast was served at 4 a.m., ham, eggs, fried potatoes, fruit and/or coffee, tea, milk. During the evening, games as ping-ping, bingo were played.

Two caricature artists worked like little beavers. The next day some gathered at San Gregorie beach to have fun in the sun, and others stayed in Orinda and lounged around pools and discussed memories of the past four years.

PARTIES AROUND this time were held at Jonathon Jensen (Josh), Bill Powell's-Knights party and at Fred Haughton's home.

The class of 1960 held a class reunion at Kathy Calheun's. Pine Grove held graduation for the 8th graders, now freshmen at Miramonte High, June 17.

A few members of our class are moving away. Bill Carroll has gone back to Maryland. Phil Steavens is now going to Vacaville, Calif. Summer vacationers are Joann Hall at Shasta, Jan Miller at a dude ranch, Sally Holibird in Los Angles.

Mark Laurence is taking a freighter trip to Iran. Keith Thraillkill is working for the government in Utah. The plans for next year's schooling: at Oregon U there will be Carol Pedersen, Dick Stark, Bob Welch, Linda Bargones, Andy Degrassi, Jan Miller, Milinda Thompson and Sharon Neilson and others. John Drath at Washington. Barden Wilmar, Steve Abott and Barb Jorden will be found at Cal at Santa Barbara. John Walker, Tom Ferguson, Duane Chase and Tina Cole at BYU. Susan Cox attending the University of Nottingham in England.

The Senior class officers were; president, Bill Caldwell; Joan Eberhart, vice president; John Hogle, secretary; Larie Axelson, treasurer and Connie Cook as social secretry.

In conclusion we would like to express our deepest appreciation to our advisors R. Anderson and H. Tutton and other teachers, deans and parents who helped us through the past four years at Miramonte High School.
